

Touring Performances:

Hard Headed Heart

High art meets low when the words of early 20th Century Poets are given voice in this cabaret of wooden puppets, rolling paper scrolls and bass drums.

This solo performance includes a traditional hand puppet show performed with drum kit, a one-man band accompanies a rod marionette show with motorized story scroll and a shadow puppet show is performed on a series of hand cranked paper scrolls. The performances are based on the writings of Federico Garcia Lorca and Wallace Stevens as well as a traditional New Orleans blues song.

Duration: 80 minutes

Ages: College & Up

These 3 solo performances include:

The Puppet Show of Don Cristobal

A bawdy telling of Cristobal's wooing and marriage to the delectable Dona Rosita.

The Blackbird

Doubt inexplicitly finds its way in between the love of a man and a woman.

St. James Infirmary

Faced with the death of his lover, we watch a man dance away his grief.
